Title: Indiana University South Bend Class Bulletins Collection.

Extent: 4.2 cubic feet

Abstract:

Collection of Indiana University South Bend class bulletins. Dates range from the 1934-1935 academic year to the present. Additionally, there is an early bulletin included – from the 1915-1916 academic year. Each semester of each of the inclusive years is represented by a class bulletin. An excellent source for an overview on just what disciplines have been offered through the years, what the requirements needed for offered degrees have been, as well as what degrees have been offered through the years. It is also worthy of note that several of the earlier bulletins included in the collection were printed out of Bloomington but contain enough information relevant to the South Bend campus to warrant their inclusion.

Scope and Content Note:

Material is arranged by date.
